

Are you ready for retirement?

Develop a long-term savings plan and help improve your overall retirement outcome by taking advantage of the interactive Retirement Income Calculator (RIC) available on your home page at mylife.jhrps.com.

A screenshot of the mylifenow® Retirement Income Calculator (RIC) website. The top navigation bar includes 'mylifenow®', 'Multi-plan View', 'logout Hello, John!', and a 'MENU...' button. Below the navigation is a grid of nine small images showing various life stages and activities. The main content area shows 'My portfolio balance' of '$366,272.04' (as of 03/15/2017). It also displays 'Estimated Monthly Retirement Income' of '$6,184.93' (projected as of 03/15/2017), with a bar graph showing the breakdown by account type: John Hancock Accounts (dark blue), Social Security (light blue), Other Accounts (light blue), and Gap (light grey). The 'Other Accounts' bar is nearly full, with a callout showing '$5,333.33 YOUR MONTHLY INCOME GOAL'. On the left, a 'Retirement Progress' section shows a large blue circle with '100% OF GOAL'. At the bottom are buttons for 'Calculations and Assumptions' and 'RETIREMENT MODELING'.

What can you do with RIC?

You can take advantage of RIC as soon as you log into your account. From your home page, you can use RIC to:

- View your projected balance as a monthly or annual figure
- Hover over the bar graph for details about your account
- Keep track of your progress toward your goal
- Click Calculations and Assumptions to view the calculator's methodology (e.g. defaults for salary, estimated income growth rate, estimated inflation rate, etc).
- Click the Retirement Modeling button to access additional ways to personalize your retirement outcome.

Personalize your retirement goal with Retirement Modeling

Retirement Modeling provides you access to additional calculator features and allows you to see how changes you make to your personal information can affect your retirement outcome.

Sample for illustrative purposes only.

1 My Goal & Assumptions—Change your retirement age, update your salary, modify your projected rate of return, or include/exclude Social Security. Add up to five outside assets you intend to use for retirement to further personalize your retirement goal.

2 Improve my Outcome—Move the sliders to experiment with different contribution rates.*

You can apply these changes right away to optimize elections, or just experiment with different scenarios to see how they may potentially improve your outcome. Come back anytime to explore more and help stay on track.

Develop a strategy for a better retirement outcome

Whether your projection indicates you need to save more, or you're on track to meet your retirement income goal, there are always steps you can take to accumulate more for your retirement years. And that could mean a better future.

*The "Improve My Outcome" tab is only available if any one of your plans allows you to make contribution rate changes on this website.
