

LifeSolutions®

A No-Cost Resource for Legal Information

If you have a question about a legal issue, whom do you turn to for help? Talking to a lawyer can be expensive. Checking the internet might give you thousands of answers, few of which are trustworthy.

When you have questions about legal matters, turn to LifeSolutions, your member assistance program (MAP). Our website, Lifesolutionsforyou.com, includes a variety of legal resources, including:

- Comprehensive articles on identity theft, contracts, landlord/tenant issues, invention protection, and information security.
- Information on criminal law, marriage, divorce, child custody, immigration and expatriation, retirement, and wills and estates.
- Hundreds of downloadable and commonly used legal forms.
- An online program to help you create your will.

LifeSolutions does not provide legal advice or services. The resources described above are made available for general educational and informational purposes and are not a substitute for the advice of a legal professional. If you have or suspect you have an issue related to the material presented, consult a legal or other appropriate professional. Use of the resources is subject to additional terms and conditions provided on the website.

LifeSolutions' website also offers a wide selection of prerecorded webinars on legal topics. These 45- to 50-minute presentations can be accessed at any time.

Check out the resources on our website or call LifeSolutions at 1-855-209-8762 to discuss available support, resources, and assistance.

LifeSolutions' MAP services are private and confidential. They are available to you and members of your household at no cost.

LifeSolutions is here to help.
