Part of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), known as the Privacy Rule, requires group health plans, like the Roofers Local No. 149 Security Benefit Trust Fund plan, to adopt a Notice of Privacy Practices. This Notice of Privacy Practices describes the uses and disclosures the plan can make of your protected health information (PHI) that is created, received, and maintained by the plan in the course of providing health benefits. In addition, the Notice of Privacy Practices explains the legal obligations of the plan and your legal rights regarding the PHI held by the Plan.

The Privacy Rule also requires plans to make available to all participants their Notice of Privacy Practices and, when material changes are made to such Notice of Privacy Practices, send a timely communication describing such materials changes.

Effective February 16, 2026, the Roofers Local No. 149 Security Benefit Trust Fund's Notice of Privacy Practices has been materially changed to comply with changes made by law, specifically to:

- 1. Incorporate additional protections for substance use disorder treatment records. In relevant part, there are specific limitations on how we can use or disclose records of your identity, diagnosis, prognosis, or treatment maintained in connection with the performance of any program or activity related to substance use disorder education, prevention, training, treatment, rehabilitation, or research, which was conducted, regulated, or directly or indirectly assisted by any federal department or agency (Part 2 records).

Part 2 records, or testimony relating the content of such records, will not be used or disclosed in any civil, administrative, criminal, or legislative proceeding against you unless based on specific written consent or a court order after notice and an opportunity to be heard is provided to you. A court order authorizing the use or disclosure must be accompanied by a subpoena or other legal requirement compelling disclosure before the requested record is used or disclosed.

- 2. Provide information regarding redisclosure. You should be aware that information disclosed in accordance with this notice and federal law may be subject to redisclosure and no longer protected by the limitations contained in this notice and federal law.
