HRA ACCOUNT

What is the HRA Account?

The HRA Account is an individual account, established for eligible participants, with benefit amount based on the amount contributed on the employees behalf.

How will my (HRA) be Funded?

Each participant will have an account based on hours worked under the Collective Bargaining Agreement multiplied by an amount determined in the Bargaining Agreement. Retirees may also have an account, based on the amount contributed prior to retirement.

How will I be informed of my HRA balance?

HRA information appears on your monthly status report. The monthly status report currently reflects your beginning balance, any new work hour contributions to the HRA and any reimbursement requests that have been processed. Claims paid from the HRA will reduce your account balance.

What can I use the HRA account for?

To pay bills for covered medical, dental, vision or prescription expenses which would otherwise not be payable under the Sheet Metal Local 292 Health Care Plan, (due to co-payments, maximum benefit allowed, or services that are not payable under the Plan), to pay a Self Payment amount which may be due.

In other words, the HRA may be used for one or more of the following expenses incurred:

- All or part of any co-payments required, or amounts in excess of usual, customary and reasonable limits, on covered Medical services
- Other medical expenses, provided they are qualified medical expenses as defined by the IRS
- Dental or Vision claims
- Prescription drug program co-payments
- Self Payments
- Diabetic Education will be allowed providing you submit a prescription from your physician and obtain the education from a licensed dietitian.

What expenses are not allowed?

Benefits payable under the HRA are subject to IRS rules and regulations regarding the IRS definition of medical expenses which may be included in medical expense deductions. The following is a partial list of expenses not payable under the HRA. They include but are not limited to:

- Expenses already processed and the amount paid by Blue Cross.
- Vitamins/Supplements (whether prescribed by a doctor or not), and over the counter drugs and supplies
- Life Insurance Premiums
- Claims prior to 11/1/09.

What do I have to do to request reimbursement from my HRA?

You must send a completed HRA Claim Form along with the following information: (NOTE: BALANCE DUE STATEMENTS ARE NOT ACCEPTABLE).

Reimbursement for:

Medical Co-payments

Information Required

Copy of your Blue Cross Explanation of Benefits Form. (EOB).

Dental and Vision Claims

Complete itemized bill including date of service and explanation of service.

Prescription Co-payments

Copy of drug label receipts showing co-payment. DO NOT SEND cash register receipts.

Self Payments

Send in your Self Payment Stub.

Where do I send my HRA reimbursement requests?

Send these requests to:

Sheet Metal Local 292
HRA Account
P.O. Box 189
Troy, MI 48099-0189

Is there a time limit to file for HRA Benefits?

Yes, HRA Claims must be filed within 12 months of the date of service.

What happens to my HRA after I retire?

You will still be able to use your HRA as before. Should you die, your HRA will be transferred to your surviving spouse.

Self Payments

If you are required to make a self-payment to maintain your coverage, you may use your HRA account to make the payment.

Maximum Benefit

Your maximum benefit equals the current balance in your HRA account.
