What is the HRA Account?

The Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA) is a bookkeeping account that will reimburse an eligible participant for medical care expenses as defined under IRC section 213(d).

Please note, this is a bookkeeping account only – it cannot be cashed out by participants at any time, and it does not “vest” – the Board may terminate the HRA at any time in accordance with the provisions of the Retiree Health Care Trust.

What can I use the HRA account for?

The HRA may be used for all “qualified medical expenses”. Unfortunately, we cannot provide an exhaustive list of all possible “qualified medical expenses”. Please refer to Internal Revenue Code section (IRC) 213(d) or IRS Publication 502 (available at www.irs.gov) for further guidance. A determination of whether an expense is for "medical care" is based on all the relevant facts and circumstances. To be an expense for medical care, the expense has to be primarily for the prevention or alleviation of a physical or mental defect or illness. The determination often hangs on the word "primarily." As an example, the following is a partial list:

- All or part of any medical, dental, vision or prescription co-payments
- Other medical expenses, provided they are qualified medical expenses as defined by the IRS
- Diabetic education, providing you submit a prescription from your physician and obtain the education from a licensed dietitian
- Premiums for other insurance

What expenses are not allowed?

Benefits payable under the HRA are subject to IRS rules and regulations regarding the IRS definition of medical expenses which may be included in medical expense deductions.

Is there a time limit to file for HRA Benefits?

Yes, HRA Claims must be filed by March 31st of the year following the Plan Year in which the expense was incurred. Claims filed following the March 31st deadline will be denied by the Plan’s Third-Party Administrators as untimely.
